FFER THEATRE

Coming Attractions

The Freshman class and transfers were welcomed to Pfeiffer College by staff, orientation team and activities. They arrived early Sunday morning, August 17. Many events took place; such as registering, unpacking and testing. Yet the orientation team also planned many activities to help welcome the newcomers. A Toga dance, Playfair, square dance and other events made all feel a little bit more at ease. All and all orientation was a great success and a lot of fun.

A Weekend Full of Memories

Pfeiffer College's Homecoming began the last week in September. The week held many events put on by the theater, the students and CUB. On Friday, a mini concert presenting Scott Jones took place in the Student Center. The following day, the annual carnival, and soccer game kept everyone busy. Later that evening the Homecoming dance, with music by "Xenon", climaxed with the crowning of the 1987 Homecoming Queen, Kendall Wright. The week ended with games at the lake, followed by dinner there also. Everyone seemed to enjoy the eventful weekend.

Saving Lives; Helping Others

October 27 was a day in which many people gave just a little more than usual. The Blood Mobile arrived early in the morning and stayed until late that evening. Teachers, students, friends and family came to help those in need. Washington won in giving the most blood out of the dorms and the lacrosse team won in the athletic area. We would like to thank all who participated; it was greatly appreciated.

Getting dressed up. Putting on make-up. Acting silly. Creeping through woods. Running through dorms. This was Pfeiffer College's campus Halloween night. Everything from the traditional ghost to the fuzzy red pair of dice were seen running all over Misenheimer. Although there were some children trick-or-treating from dorm to dorm, the biggest trick or treaters were our own students! Pranks were pulled and tricks were played.

Later that evening, there was a dance held at the lakehouse. While many students tested their own discipline and strength as they participated in a limbo contest, others awaited the decision for the best costume award. Finally, among all the goblins, punk rockers, and miscellaneous creatures, a winner was picked. Mo Chilton, dressed as the tinman, was voted the winner. Everyone agreed that this night was filled with lots of screams, howls, and excitement.

Entertaining Tonight... CUB

CUB provided a wealth of entertainment for Pfeiffer students during the year with a variety of entertainers and performers.

Rick Kelley's keyboard and vocal performance in the lake house had to be one of the season highlights. As was the performances of mentalist Craig Karges and hypnotist Tom DeLuca.

Entertainment for Credit

One of the many things Pfeiffer has to offer to enhance learning is the SUPP program. Here students experience a variety of things from what it is like being a teacher at Pfeiffer College and applying for jobs in the real world to exposure to professional opera performances. Speakers come from all over the country and from Pfeiffer's back yard to bring a world of experience to the college. Students go to SUPP and come out knowing more than any textbook could teach.

A Festival of Plays

The 1986-87 Pfeiffer theatrical year kicked off with a festival of two short plays. "Overtones" and "The Businessman's Lunch" were both student performed and directed. Seniors Janet Helmer and Mike Lucas directed the plays respectively.

The Crucible

Pfeiffer College Theatre Department presented "The Crucible" on November 20, 21, 22 at 8:00 p.m. in the campus theatre. "The Crucible" is a dramatization of a historic event from our nation's past. It deals with a dramatic tale of the Salem witch hunts of 1692. Human failings such as greed, vengeance, jealousy, ambition, fear and hysteria are brought out in the play. The cast consisted of many talented students who put all into the making of "The Crucible" a success. The play was very entertaining and enjoyed by all.

The Tradition Continues

In 1973, a special Christmas celebration became a Pfeiffer tradition — this celebration became known as Williamsburg Christmas. This idea originated from early American custom. Decorations, such as, live greenery, fruits, nuts, pines, and all sorts of natural wreaths and garlands helped to make Christmas look more natural as opposed to the commercialization often seen. Under the direction of the Religious Life Council, buildings and dorms on campus were decorated by different clubs, organizations, and groups.

The season began November 20, 1986, with a successful workshop which taught faculty and students how to create the desired image. Later that week, the campus was lavished in decorations of the Williamsburg look. That evening, students gathered to carol and drink hot chocolate. Involved in the celebration was an open house for Rowe, Merner, Cline, and Washington dorms, and the Student Affairs office. Also included in the event were several musical concerts and a Lovefeast. Through all the activities and programs planned during the two week celebration, Pfeiffer caught the spirit of Christmas early.

Dining and Dancing

It was truly a night to remember! Although the dance was held in the old gym, the evening began in the cafeteria. A delicious steak and shrimp dinner was served by various members of Pfeiffer's Staff. Not only were the students and their guests welcome, the prospective students that were visiting campus for the weekend also attended. The tables were beautifully decorated with white tablecloths, red candles and carnations. There was also live entertainment. Dean Riemann even played his morracos to give the music a different sound.

The old gym certainly had a different look that evening. CUB decorated with a large parachute and balloons. The totally awesome band, Main Stream, played for the dance. All of this fun and excitement were perfect ingredients for an evening of dining and dancing.

Singin' in the Streets of New York

The spring season of 1987 was kicked off with an enthusiastic musical called Streetwork. The revue took place March 26, 27, and 28. The ensemble was made up of nineteen extremely talented singers.

Divided into two acts, twenty-one songs were sung. These musical numbers included "NYC", "100 People", "Big Spender", "The Boy From New York City", "If I Could've Been", and more. And what would a musical revue be without solos? This collaboration was no exception. Julie Overton performed "Out Here on my Own", Dawn Yankowski captured the audiences' attention with "Ladies Who Lunch", Logan Stone sang ever so easily "Losing my Mind", and Gigi Gillis caught the hearts of many as she made her debut with "Another Suitcase".

A Weekend Of Memories

Aprilfest weekend took place the 10th, 11th and 12th. Friday evening, Rick Kelley performed at the lakehouse for another annual night of fun and dancing. Saturday at the lake, there were games and canoe races with fun prizes for all. At 2:00 the lacrosse team played an exciting game, which unfortunately they lost. That evening "Bryce Street" played its wonderful tones for all to dance and hear. Sunday was the annual boat race. Many interesting and funny boats were entered, yet very few made it to the finish line. Dave Powell and Tom Ruge won $100 for first place and Jim Foss and Andy DiMonda won $50 for most original. The day ended with dinner at the lake. The weekend was full of fun and surprises which no one will forget, including Lori Gillis, Aprilfest Queen.

Time For A New Beginning

Former Florida Governor, Rueben Askew, challenged the 143 members of Pfeiffer College's Class of 1987 to accept the responsibility their degree demanded. "You have been given an education not for yourself, but to assume a collective responsibility to make American democracy work."

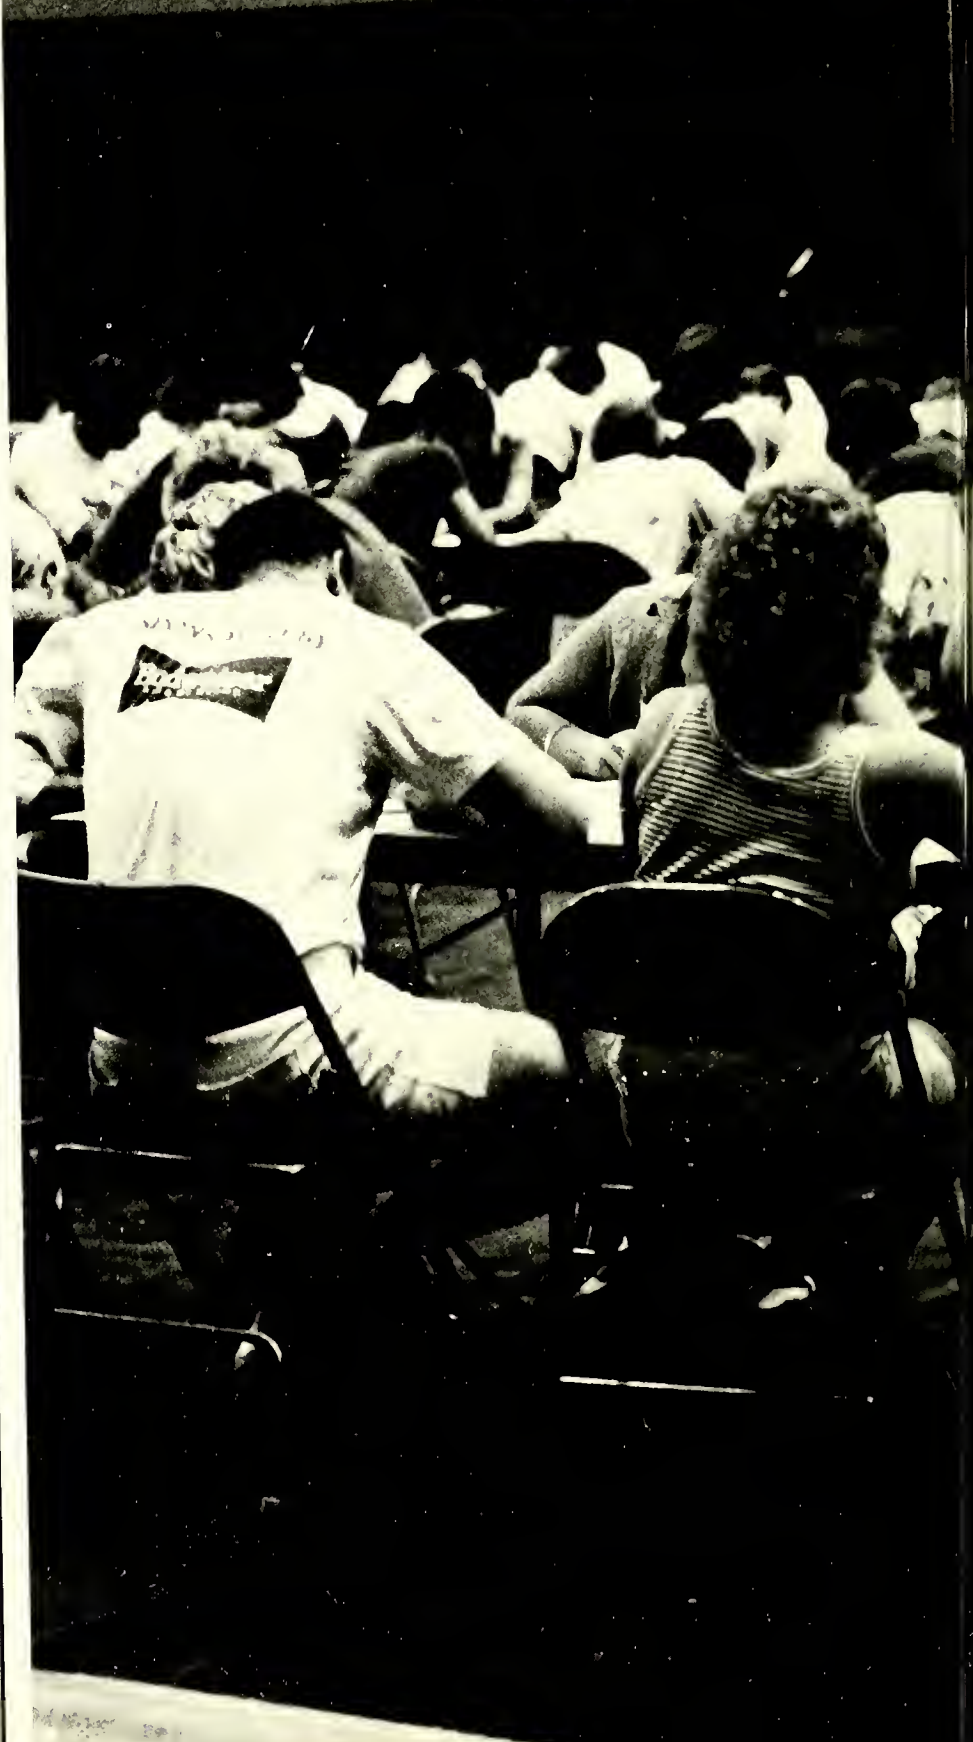

The ceremony also featured the awarding of an honorary Doctor of Divinity to William R. Brantley and the final performance of a Pfeiffer musical group under the direction of retiring professor, Richard Brewer

Mel's Boys Have A Kick

Pfeiffer started out the season winning six of their first seven games. Then injuries struck and the Falcons finished out the season with a record of 9-7-1. Sophomore Frank Pustay was selected All-Conference and All-District while tying for the scoring lead with Julian Machimbarrena. Each scored three goals and four assists for ten points. Junior Fred Franke was Conference Honorable Mention at goalie. The Falcons just missed the playoffs this year, but with 16 returning lettermen we will be looking for them in there next year.

Falcons Look To Future

First year coach Bob Lutz saw his young team, only one senior, struggle through a tough season. Pfeiffer finished with a record of 7-18. One of the bright spots for this year's team was the selection of Tony Davis as the Conference Player of the Year. It was the second year that a Falcon has received this award. Tony led the team in both scoring and rebounding with 20.5ppg and 7.2rpg. The play of freshman Thomas Pittman (10.5ppg, 4.9rpg) was another bright spot. With everyone but Tony coming back, the Falcons will be a force to reckon with.

Take it to the net

Overall highlights were 9-0 matches against Wingate, Lenoir-Rhyne (twice) and Pembroke (twice). At the CIAC the team accumulated 44 points and finished fourth.

None

Under the leadership of Coach Jack Ingram, the Lady Falcons continued their winning tradition on the softball field. The team finished second in the District 26 competition and as co-champions in the conference. With no seniors on the team that record setting tradition should continue for the next few years to come.

Say Yes To War Eagle Lax

The Pfeiffer War Eagles started the year off by winning two dramatic overtime games against Drew University and Lynchburg College. The Falcons then lost a heartbreaker to nationally ranked Guilford 11-9. Several key injuries then took their toll on the war eagles as they dropped 3 of the next four games. Pfeiffer did bounce back to win their last three games to finish up 6-4.

Celebrate Black and Gold

Pep and enthusiasm definitely led the crowd this year. With the varsity and J.V. cheerleaders it wasn't hard to get the crowd rolling. With hard work and practice our cheerleaders proved our athletes victorious. Led by Angie Lefler as advisor, varsity captain Kelly Blanchette and J.V. captain Jennifer Noblitt, the cheerleaders spirit often gave our teams support which boosted moral among our winning teams.

Patients and Dedication

The athletic trainers are the people behind the scenes that keep Pfeiffer athletes going. They take preventative measures for injuries by wrapping weak ankles and wrists. When injuries do happen, the athletes can always count on the trainers being there.

The trainers not only give the athletes medical attention but are also there to be a friend when they need someone to ease the down moods. A lot of thanks goes to these trainers for their patience and dedication to Pfeiffer Athletics. It wouldn't be the same without them.

Awarding Athletes

When the annual Sports Banquet was held, Athletic Trainer Ken Brown gave the invocation after which everyone enjoyed their dinner. Finally, the coaches presented the MVP for their team. In Field Hockey, Missy Johnstone; Soccer, Fred Franke; Volleyball, Denise Hemler; Cross-Country, Tim Koves and Jeff Childress; Women's Basketball, Donna Wolf; Men's Basketball, "Player of the Year" Tony Davis; Swimming, Pam Baran and Amy Mathiason; Lacrosse, Will Gillis; Baseball, Tim Pulliam and Warren Williams and Scott Teague; Women's Tennis, Kim Jones; Men's Tennis, Greg Caccia; Athletic Training, Kathy Richardson and Chris Furr; Softball, Angie Little and Cheerleading, Kelly Blanchette.
